Here We March A-Wassailing

Arranged by Steve Hodges

The old English wassail song refers to ‘wassailing,’ or singing carols door to door wishing good health. This arrangement lifts the spirit and energy of the season as this favorite old English carol is transformed into a rousing march.

Beethoven’s Fifth Christmas

Arranged by Mark Williams

You’ve never heard Beethoven’s fifth symphony like this! Themes from three of its movements are combined with familiar carols to create this amusing addition to our holiday program.

The Polar Express

Arranged by Michael Story

From the popular movie this is a medley of the popular tunes written by Alan Silvestri for the film.

Wind Ensemble

A Holiday Montage

Arranged by Gary E. Parks

This charming holiday arrangement includes a few holiday favorites. Feel free to sing along, but watch out for melodic surprises. Every section will have a chance to be featured, even the percussion.

Santa’s Journey

By Roy W. Kaighin

As Santa starts his journey, bringing ‘Joy to the World’ by delivering presents to children (and adults too), he sets off on his majestic sleigh driven by his reindeer. A few elves have snuck into the sleigh to help. With a whoosh, he flies across the sky and over the snowy mountains. The music is in continuous motion, just like Sant’s sleigh, as he has many presents to deliver before morning.

The quiet moments in the music depict Santa’s arrival in small villages, away from the hustle and bustle of the big cities, touching the hearts of people everywhere. During his journey, Santa discovers the elves who have apparently lost some of the presents. Santa offers a gentle reprisal before the presents are eventually found by Elfie, the youngest elf. After all the presents have been delivered, Santa heads back home as he calls out, ‘I’ll be back next Christmas!’

Gaudete

Arranged by Brian Beck

Gaudete dates back to the 16th century, and was sung as a Christmas Carol throughout the monasteries of Europe. Meaning “rejoice” in Latin, this piece captures the intense passion of praise coupled with moments of calm reverence.

Pandemonium

A Charlie Brown Christmas

Arranged by Paul Murtha

Solos:

Ellie Benedicto Alto Sax and

Gabe Day Trombone

Frosty the Snowman

Words and Music by Steve Nelson and Jack Rollins

Arranged by Mike Lewis

Baby, It’s Cold Outside

By Frank Loesser

Arranged by Roger Holmes

Duet and solos - Kylon Mortenson and Luke Mixon

Twelve Days Days of Christmas

Arranged by Ralph Carmichael

This arrangement was made for the Stan Kenton Band in 1961. Kenton was known for doing ‘different’ things in his arrangements.

One of his things was a section of French Horns instead of saxes. Our arrangement has the horn parts covered by the Sax section. Also note all the extra percussion stuff, lack of guitar, and the constant change of keys and times. This is a difficult arrangement, but the kids are playing it well.

Silent Night

Arranged by Jim Mahaffey

Soloist is Kylon Mortenson

This arrangement starts out ‘normal’ but has a double time section for the improv solo section.

Rudolph the Red Nosed Reindeer

Arranged by Chris Sharp

Soloist is Luke Mixon

Not your tradition Rudolph, this one has a swing section, rock section, and latin section.

We Wish You a Merry Christmas

Arranged by Paul Clark

Soloist is Quinten Bingham

HAVE A VERY JOYOUS HOLIDAY SEASON!
